Center for Latin American & Caribbean Studies

Pan-American Seminar

10:00 am - 10:30 am
Carolina Pardo Torres
Graduate Student of Educational Technologies at the University of Kansas

The importance of conservation of traditional knowledge about insects in Latin America: Addressing conservation efforts by indigenous communities through media production

10:30 am - 11:00 am
Peter Herlihy
Associate Professor, Geography at the University of Kansas

The importance of geography for understanding contemporary land issues with examples from indigenous populations in Latin America

11:00 am - 11:30 am
Peter Haney
Assistant Director of Latin American and Caribbean Studies at the University of Kansas

“Are We Good Neighbors?” LULAC’s Pan-Americanism

11:30 am - 12:00 pm
James Malouf III
President of Pan American Association of Kansas City

Pan-American Society KC and PANAM Clubs

Lunch Break
12:00 pm - 12:45 pm

1:00 pm - 2:00 pm
Kerwin Shaffer
Associate Professor of Latin American Studies at Penn State University

“Bolivarianismo Anarquista: International Anarchists in Panama and their vision for a radical Pan-Americanism”

2:00 pm - 2:30 pm
Tamara Falicov
Associate Professor and Chair of Department of Film and Media Studies at the University of Kansas

“New Chilean Cinema and Politics”

2:30 pm - 3:00 pm
John Hoopes
Associate Professor of Archaeology and Director of Global Indigenous Nations Studies at the University of Kansas

Archaeology and indigenous identities in Latin America: cultural heritage, the pre-Hispanic past, and misrepresentations and misconceptions about the ancient past of Latin America that are promoted in pop culture

Location: Sabatini Multicultural Resource Center, 1299 Oread Ave
Date and Time: Friday, April 19th. From 10:00 AM to 3:00 PM
Snacks and Beverage. Open to general audience